

Let's Dance

written by William Mylar © 1992

Solo in D

E7 D G C G

Let's dance, though the world is falling down.

E7 D G C G

Let's dance, as they burn another town.

E7 D G C G

Let's dance. They don't listen anyway.

E7 D G C G

Let's dance. No tomorrows, just today.

Bm A G Bm

In a world full of murder and mayhem and disease,

Bm A G A

Let's dance away the blues. Oh music, if you please.

D

Let's dance.

Let's dance. Everything's against the law.

Let's dance. See the writing on the wall.

Let's dance. It's all we have today.

Let's dance. Even this may go away.

In a world losing liberties and chances to live free,

let's dance away the blues. Oh music, if you please.

Let's dance.

Let's dance, though the air is full of stink.

Let's dance, and the waters, you can't drink.

Let's dance. Even the haves will surely die.

Let's dance, with no planet left to buy.

In a world with no ozone, burning rain, and dying trees, let's dance away the blues. Oh music, if you please.

D C
Let's dance. 4X

Jam on the D and C then 4 measures of single D and C to the bridge

F#7 E A D A

Let's dance. There must be something we can do.

Let's dance. Solve a problem, maybe two.

Let's dance. Give our children more to say.

Let's dance. The future is today.

C#m B A C#m

The world needs hope and faith and charity and peace,

C#m B A B

love and understanding and music, if you please.

E E E E E

Let's dance. Let's dance. Let's dance. Let's dance.
